

Aylesbury Cheerleading Academy's Social Media Policy

- Remember that if you 'friend' an athlete on Social Media that does not necessarily mean that you are 'friends' in the real world so when commenting/liking posts please exercise caution where necessary.
- Never pressure anyone to “friend” you.
- Seek permission from others before posting pictures or videos of them on publicly available social media like Facebook, Snap chat, Instagram, or YouTube.
- Do not pressure others to join social media just to follow Aylesbury Cheerleading Academy's social media
- Avoid association with social media groups like Facebook or Twitter feeds with explicit sexual content or viewpoints that might offend or compromise how others perceive you.
- Never misrepresent yourself by using a fake name or fake profile
- Do not post negatively about other athletes, teams.
- Always represent the best version of yourself on social media
- Remember once it's been “posted” it can never be removed, even if you delete the original post it may have already been seen and shared.
